Institute of Being, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.(Sept 1992) A Journey Into BEING Ahh! Yes, alone at last. Me, myself, and I all alone, before the crackling of my mind's fire. And, now, to no-mind for a while, one week, two, three, we will see. I've decided not to wait to die. I've decided to do the thought of it, right spacenow! Just another concept; is it not? Die, die, die. death ! It could be such a nuisance. This noise could bother me so. And, all along, it is no more than some silly thought, a concept, some arbitrary, incidental projection from fears of not knowing WHAT is, from fears of not knowing how THINGS dissolve, the other into the ONE. The noise of these mind-made things -that live and die only in the mind-are to be put to rest. I look into SPACE and see billions upon billions of burning orbs without manifestations of LIFE. Yet, HERE IT exists. HERE IT appears, in thought, in fact, and in deed, a most incredible THING, some would deign to call it miracle. Then, I might smoke and drink. I might add, to overpopulate these lands. I might abstract a BEING into a mind-made thing . the enemy ! I might give military aid to those who kill the hungry. I might allow my self to destroy a most incredible BEING. Those eyes! These eyes of the children! No monument as high as the clouds, no sunset of all the colors, no elixir to sway my moods, no ambrosia to feed my vanity, no thrills for my devils to seek, no rest for my angels to keep. can compare to the...
