Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Heroes and Judges, Vol. 5: From the Lawgiver to the King, International Sunday-School Commentary, January to July, 1875 This volume, like those that have preceded it, has been prepared with special reference to the wants of teachers and advanced scholars in Sunday-Schools. Its notes are intended to furnish the latest results of exegetical and textual criticism and recent discovery; to explain the meaning of words, idioms, and phrases of the original; to exhibit the drift and object of the discourse or narrative in each particular place; to describe the places, persons, and customs as they occur in the text; and to enforce the whole with practical lessons on the way of salvation and the duties of the Christian life. The aim has also been to strike a mean between brevity and prolixity, and at the same time give the aid needed by teachers of ordinary intelligence. The International Series Of Lessons, which is given and commented upon in this volume, embraces about one-third of the Gospel of Mark, and presents very good view of the mighty deeds of Jesus, as recorded by this Evangelist. The historical links between the lessons are also briefly noted. It is to be hoped that this will be preparatory to a fuller study of this most important Gospel which has been most sadly neglected by both popular and critical students of the Bible. The Scripture text has been given in both the Common and the Revised Versions. Many who use the former wish to consult the latter, and those who prefer the latter often desire to compare with it the former. The paragraph form is used in both, as best...
