By Alma Flor Ada, Gabriel M Zubizarreta

Atheneum Books for Young Readers, United States, 2013.

Paperback. Book Condition: New. 193 x 127 mm. Language:

English . Brand New Book. In this timely tale of immigration, two cousins learn the importance of family and friendship. A year of discoveries culminates in a performance full of surprises, as two girls find their own way to belong. Mexico may be her parents home, but it s certainly not Margie s. She has finally convinced the other kids at school she is one-hundred percent American just like them. But when her Mexican cousin Lupe visits, the image she s created for herself crumbles. Things aren t easy for Lupe, either. Mexico hadn t felt like home since her father went North to find work. Lupe s hope of seeing him in the United States comforts her some, but learning a new language in a new school is tough. Lupe, as much as Margie, is in need of a friend.

Little by little, the girls individual steps find the rhythm of one shared dance, and they learn what home really means. In the tradition of My Name is Maria Isabel and simultaneously published in English and in Spanish Alma Flor Ada and...
