General V A. Senator, you have my commitment. I AN NTWERP might just add, after our conversation, my aide pulled up Poplar Island, and what was done there is just a magnificent project. On this particular project, I am told by the corps after we checked on it yesterday, was that everything is there for the Chiefs report. All the information is there, so that it will go before a review board in July, and there is a strong likelihood by Labor Day, you could have the Chiefs report. Senator C. I thank you for that. It will be extremely helpful ARDIN for the work of this Congress...
