This story starts off with a bang and does not let up. And the twists? Yeah, you don't see them coming either. a strong storyline with likable characters and I totally recommend that you should buy this book! - Booklikes I started this thriller last intending to read only a little. I didn't put down until I was done. The twists and turns led to a surprise end that I didn't see coming! - NetGalley Reviewer It's almost impossible to put down. neatly chronicled detective work, mixed with expertly choreographed acts of terror and suspense take you on a thrilling ride. Grab something bracing to fortify your nerves, maybe a few tissues and a nail file (for the damage your teeth will inflict on said nails) and get comfy for this exciting journey. Enjoy, and don't forget to breathe! - Goodreads Reviewer Carter Mays newest client, Dana Carrington, has been given a year to live. Her prognosis didn't come from a medical professional, but rather the handsome, charming man she met while on a business trip....
