D., American Ambassador to England, Delivered at Plymouth, August 4th, 1917 I Cannot tell you how deeply you move me by your generous English and warm-hearted Devon welcome. I know that in spite of your good will to me your welcome far transcends any mere personal compliment. What you are here for and the reason you show me this marked honour is that I am the representative of your kinsmen across the sea. (Cheers.) It gives me supreme pleasure to stand in this historic spot facing the statue of your great admiral, Sir Francis Drake - I will say our great admiral (hear, hear) - and near the place where the Mayflower last left land, and to see you who are of the same race of people, kindred to them, I dare say, who sailed away to carry your ideas of freedom into the New World. We bring back that same idea of freedom for the relief of the imperilled freedom of...
