Larry Tomczak served as student body president at Cleveland State University before working at the AFL CIO headquarters across from the White House in Washington DC. He then entered full-time ministry and has served in this vocation for over 43 years. Larry has trained leaders, established dozens of churches in America and abroad and today serves as a cultural commentator bringing insight, analysis and perspective from a Biblical worldview. His articles appear on sites reaching 26 million monthly. Larry is the author of nine books including a quarter-million bestseller, Clap Your Hands, his autobiography. He has ministered internationally and appeared on national TV, plus spoken to numerous NFL and NBA teams. He is a public policy advisor with Liberty Counsel legal defense organization and a 40 year board member of Intercessors for America national prayer ministry. He has been married for 40 years with four grown children and five grandchildren, and resides in the Nashville metropolitan area. Larry has a conviction: as David served the purpose of God in his generation and then fell asleep (Book of Acts 13:36), if you would do the best...
