I Can See You Being Invisible (Paperback)

By Andy Brown, Andrew George Brown

DC BOOKS, United States, 2004. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 202 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This diverse book of linked stories is filled with off-centre characters and their flaws and burdens. Read about a one-armed baseball player, anosmatics, a colour blind photographer, a time pusher and his best customer, intruders, the grape-picking diaspora, the whippet police, tree planters lost in the slash, a one-handed mechanic with a reputation to uphold, and many more. Also contained in this collection are the definitive eHow-Toi guide to building a wall and tales of writers getting real jobs (William Faulkner drives a cab, Mikhail Bakhtin becomes a clown). With a craftsmanis skill, Brown moves from hilarity to foreboding, often within a single page.Critical CommentAndy Brownis first collection of stories converges on the discarded: rooms are provisional, existing until a stranger comes to the door and leaves with the balance of the fiction in tow. What courses through his veins are imagined histories, parallel worlds into which the reader might follow, pushing aside the curtain of a familiar photo booth to enter a world of the inexplicable, where time is the drug of choice.io Anne Stonei Can See You Being Invisible...
